

Holocaust Remembrance Day was marked with a ceremony held in the Nassau County Supreme Court on Thursday, hosted by the Jewish Lawyers' Association of Nassau County.

By Staff April 16, 2018 at 10:00 AM

Photo: Daniel Bagnuola

Holocaust Remembrance Day was marked with a ceremony held in the Nassau County Supreme Court on Thursday, hosted by the Jewish Lawyers' Association of Nassau County (JLA). The event featured an exhibit titled "Lawyers Without Rights: Jewish Lawyers in Germany under the Third Reich" which will be available for viewing at the courthouse until May 2.

Trending Stories

- 1 Public Reprimand for Broward Judge Accused of Mistreating Attorneys, High Court Rules
DAILY BUSINESS REVIEW
- 2 Baker McKenzie Global Chair Paul Rawlinson Dies
THE AMERICAN LAWYER
- 3 Kim Kardashian's Bid to Become a Lawyer Faces Long Odds
LAW.COM
- 4 Lawyer Who Practiced Law for Much of Her More-Than-15-Year Suspension Likely to Be Reinstated to Bar in 2020
NEW YORK LAW JOURNAL
- 5 Ninth Circuit Issues Stay on Ruling Blocking Trump's Policy to Force Asylum-Seekers to Wait in Mexico
THE RECORDER

LEAN ADVISER LEGAL
Think Lean Daily Message

HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY AT NASSAU COUNTY COURT

DANIEL BAGNUOLA

HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE Day was marked with a ceremony held in the Nassau County Supreme Court on Thursday hosted by the Jewish Lawyers' Association of Nassau County (JLA). The event featured an exhibit titled "Lawyers Without Rights: Jewish Lawyers in Germany under the Third Reich" which will be available for viewing at the courthouse until May 2. Pictured from left: NYS Supreme Court Justice Leonard Austin; Gary Knobel, former Nassau County District Court judge; JLA President Gene Rosen; Past President of JLA Lawrence Schaffer; Supreme Court Acting Justice and 1st Vice President of JLA Denise Sher.

personalis
geben

BRING IT DOWN: THE
click is to recognize